

CENTRAL NJ LAW FIRM CELEBRATES 35 YEARS OF LEGAL EXCELLENCE

Tues Oct 24, 2023 ~ Freehold, NJ: Roughly 1 in 5 (20%) of U.S. businesses fail within their first year of operation, according to the U.S. Bureau of Labor Statistics (BLS). After five years, 48%, and after ten years over 65% have failed.

Founded over three decades ago in 1988 by three attorney friends, the law firm of Davison Eastman Muñoz Paone, P.A. (DEMP) continues to grow, prosper and stay true to its principles. Said founding principal, Duane O. Davison, Esq., “The vision was to put pride in the product we turned out – excellence in the practice of law. It wasn’t just a slogan; it was a commitment. Our eye was focused on the quality of our work, literally putting the benefit for the client first, and know that by doing so, profitability would take care of itself.”

Since 1988, DEMP has grown and moved from downtown Freehold, NJ to its current Monmouth Executive Center location as well as opened an office on Hooper Avenue in Toms River, NJ. Even through COVID-19, DEMP kept its doors open and has always remained dedicated to achieving the goals of its clients. The firm remains a highly reputable thought leader dedicated to its clients and one another.

Advised managing partner, James A. Paone, II, Esq.: “When I joined the firm 23 years ago my vision was to be part of a multigenerational law firm that was not only dedicated to excellence in the practice of law but achieved excellence in the practice of law. These two decades later I have seen the firm grow and prosper by hiring to that vision and by nurturing quality legal talent in a culture that rewards client service, innovative thinking and camaraderie throughout the entire firm.”

The award-winning law firm and staff of Davison Eastman Muñoz Paone, P.A. are comprised of some twenty attorneys, their paralegals, and operation support staff. The full-service firm’s practice includes, among others, Business & Litigation, Trusts & Estates, Elder Law, Municipal Law, and Land Use & Zoning.
