

NJ LAW FIRM HONORS U.S. VETERANS WITH CASES OF COFFEE

November, 2023: In recognition of Veteran's Day and those that make the ultimate sacrifice for our country, the law firm of Davison Eastman Muñoz Paone, P.A. (DEMP) has partnered with Bridging the Gap for Veterans, a 501(c)(3) non-profit led by military veterans who fully understand the career transition experience. In support thereof, DEMP has purchased dozens of cases of coffee from The Coffee Platoon® - sales of which support the organization and its mission. DEMP's specific purchase is helping fund a veteran who is about to graduate the Monmouth County (NJ) Police Academy.

The firm is sharing its cases of purchased coffee with clients, vendors, partners, attorneys, and staff throughout its Freehold, NJ and Toms River, NJ office locations.

Bridging the Gap – Coffee With A Cause arrives at DEMP for Veteran's Day 2023. PHOTO (L to R): firm shareholder Blake R. Laurence, Esq.; Bridging the Gap Cmd Chief Master Sergeant (ret) Mike Ferraro; firm managing principal James A. Paone, II, Esq.; firm partner Christina Hardman-O'Neal, Esq.; firm COO/CFO Karen Surgent, CPA; firm co-founder and principal Edward C. Eastman, Esq.; firm director of marketing Ian Singer.

To learn more about Bridging the Gap, visit BridgingTheGap.vet today.

Per Bridging the Gap, "Our Mission is clear and focused. We educate, advocate, and assist in preparing Military Veterans and Family Members to be successful in their career after honorable service to our Nation."

